YOUNG AT HEART SENIORS

February for Seniors

On February 4th, President Grace Conder welcomed all and our guest speaker, Dr. James Ross, a podiatrist. She then led us in the "Pledge of Allegiance" and "God Bless America;" then we sang "Happy Birthday: to our January (when we had no meetings) and February celebrants: Don Brantley, Harry Russell, and Max Berry.

We thanked our Absolute Compassion people-for coming and tending to us.

Announcements:

Serena Neese and Sherlin Grill will be our new presidency. Shorty Zufelt now resides in the Payson Veterans home. Please support the Veterans fund-raiser event in Spanish Fork on Saturday, February 7th. (Lloyd Conder will drive the van - please meet at the memorial building at 9:30).

A thank you note from Maxine Schow's family.

Anna Gillespie read the treasurer's report and Betty Cones read the minutes from December.

Our potluck luncheon was yummy, as always. We then volunteered for a planned potluck luncheon for our Valentine's party. Doctor Ross explained what and how he could do to serve us in our homes. Wonderful! Leah Towers left us smiling by reading some Senior trivia. Yes, we "remember when!"

Our next meeting will be a Valentines party on February 18th.

Senior's Valentine Party

On February 18th, a fun Valentine's Party happened: We could tell Leah Towers got here first because all the tables were beautifully decorated! Kudos to our Leah. Our new president, Serena Neese, welcomed all, led us in the "Pledge of Allegiance" and "God Bless America," accompanied by Betty Cones. Afton Berry asked the blessing on our food and we "dug in. The highlight of the day was Jody Hughes and her 4th Graders Ukulele Band. Door prizes were won by Joan Morris, Marla Coons, JoAnn Favatella, Helen Russell and Betty Cones.

Announcements:

Serena and Sherlin can serve only through May; on March 4th we'll have a guest speaker on medicine and supplements; Grace will arrange for the Senior Driving Safety course to be taught here (completion earns discount on auto insurance). Many thanks to our past president for years of service, Grace Conder!

Our next meeting will be a true potluck on March 4th.
